CHAPTER 42.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the expenses of the Wisconsin state tax commission, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sum as shall be necessary to compensate the members of the Wisconsin state tax commission, provided for by chapter 340, laws of 1897, for actual necessary expenses incurred by them in the prosecution of their work as such commissioners, for traveling, postage, etc.; such expenses to be evidenced by sworn vouchers presented to and audited by the secretary of state; provided however that this act shall not apply to the members ex-officio of said commission; and provided further that the total amount so paid out from the state treasury, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of eight hundred and ninety-seven and thirty-two hundredths dollars.

Appropriations to defray traveling and other expenses of commission. Not extended to ex-officio members.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 23, 1899.
